TCF Bank, MATC Announce Student-Oriented Banking Partnership

MILWAUKEE (July 15, 2005) – TCF Bank and Milwaukee Area Technical College have announced a new partnership which will bring convenient and financially accessible banking services to MATC students. In conjunction with the Campus Card (student identification card) Program, TCF Bank will offer MATC students a variety of retail banking services, including free student checking accounts with no minimum balance requirements and no monthly service fees.

Students will be able to access their TCF accounts via their MATC campus cards, which will double as ATM and debit cards for TCF customers. Similar benefits will be offered to MATC employees. TCF Bank will also donate $10,000 annually to the MATC Foundation for scholarships for City of Milwaukee students who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the bank will also offer financial education seminars at MATC.

“One of the highlights of this partnership is that it will help MATC students to easily establish a banking relationship with many free services,” said Theresa Barry, MATC vice president of student services. “As an added convenience, participants will need to carry only one card for both identification and for purchases on and off campus.”

Said Tim Bailey, president of TCF Bank’s Lakeshore Division, “This is a natural partnership for both TCF Bank and Milwaukee Area Technical College,” said, “TCF Bank is an industry leader in campus card banking programs. The demographics of the MATC student body are similar to those of TCF’s.
